

HIGH QUALITY, REPRODUCTION ASIAN ART AT INTERIORS 2012

November 2011

Leeds, UK. HD Asian Art Ltd will be exhibiting for the first time at Interiors 2012. Drawing inspiration from Southeast Asia we offer an innovative collection of museum quality, reproduction Asian sculpture. Building on the current desire for high quality Asian art our individually styled pieces are produced through a collaboration that combines traditional artisan crafts with contemporary design.

Our mission is to offer exceptional, handcrafted, museum quality pieces to Contractors, Interior Designers, Architects and Consumers. By bridging the gap between tourist souvenirs and antique showroom pieces we provide affordable, quality Asian art. Value is provided in our ability to offer museum quality art 'off the shelf' in bronze, wood or stone or based on a clients own designs, whether that be of their imagination or a piece that they are already familiar with.

Supporting local artisans and their communities, throughout Southeast Asia with long term, stable, relationships, we are able to offer locally inspired designs to individuals, Projects and Corporations within the UK, Europe and Internationally. Flexibility allows us to offer a simple retail service through to full design and development services for clients bespoke sculpture requirements. Sourced locally each handcrafted piece is unique providing a range of museum quality, design led, art from table decoration through to architectural center piece.

Please visit us at Stand 3AL07 at Interiors 2012 to view some of our many pieces and see how we might bring a little Asian serenity and style to your Project.
